We, the members of the Senior Class, being of unsound mind and body, do here and now, in the presence of witnesses, Santa Fe Claus, the Maltex Kids and Uncle Ralph, bestow upon the underclassmen and termites who hold the corners of L. H. S. together, our Last Will and Testament.

CLASS WILL

Claire Beaulieu leaves her outstanding height to Tom Reinecke.

Brenda Benham leaves her 12 pills a day to Mrs. Jewell.

Carter Branigan leaves his ability to keep a girl to David Banks.

Bruce Campbell leaves his bearskin coat and bull whip to Mr. Clisham.

Bud Cantino leaves his way with money to his brother, Stanley.

Anne Conville leaves her shy mannerisms to Dixie Sullivan.

Beverly Cronin leaves her eyebrow pencil to Mary Ellen O'Keefe. (Come on, Mary, live it up!!!)

Warren Davis leaves his Sputnik-watching moon-lit nights to somebody else.

David Delamater leaves his athletic ability to Barbara Munro.

Donna Delamater leaves the last penny from the Senior Class to the treasurer of the Junior Class.

Ruth Ann Dodge leaves her ability to skip gym classes for the last four years to Julie Hosmer.

Eddie Ducharme leaves all the extra room in his front seat to Bud and Ginny.

Dick Erickson leaves his Ipana smile to Stevie Gaumont.

Dennis Fencer leaves his curly hair to David Lyons.

Sandy Graham leaves her liking for a certain college to her sister.

Ted Herbert leaves his fried grasshoppers to Francine Smith.

Shirley Holinger leaves a "honey of an expression" to the male underclassmen.

Chrystal Johnson leaves her love for P. O. D. classes to Mr. Ferry so he can soak up all her knowledge.

Elaine Johnson leaves her "educated jaw" to Ann Dombrosk.

Carolyn Kimball leaves her library technique to Hannah Huse.

Gus Lindgren leaves his fabulous physique to Richard Riggs.

Franny Lovejoy leaves his mirror to George Benham. Maybe it will do some good?

Walter O'Brien leaves his love for trig to Mr. Whitcomb. "Love It To Pieces."

Ronnie Pacy leaves his job of shoveling prunes (at the Vinegar Works) to some other unfortunate individual.

Alyce Piper leaves a piece of her wedding cake to Clementine Lucchesi. Sleep on it, Clem!

Ruth Read leaves her ability to study to Kenny Fiorentino.

Eddie Recke leaves his "hunting knife" to Dennis Anderson.

Janet St. Denis leaves her perfect attendance record to Sarah Degelman, (Who's kidding who?)

Paul Sutton leaves his black hat to Howie Croft. Of course we'll provide for peep-holes.

John Wesley leaves his ballet slippers to David Flagg.

Joanne Wright leaves her studious ability to Eddie Conrad.

Carol Anne Todd leaves her bottle of "Light & Bright" to Carol O'Brien

David Fry leaves his Shakespearean sonnets to Harvey Atkins.

To Mrs. Goddard, the Seniors leave "un libro del Espanol." She deserves a change.

The Seniors leave a year's supply of Maltex and Maypo to Mrs. Robinson. She can share it with Uncle Ralph.

To Mr. Houde and Mr. Michaels, we leave a new group of Senior boys. We hope they have many memorable moments with them.

To Mrs. Humphrey, we leave a box of erasers so her classes will be sure to have "perfect papers."

To Miss Leino, we leave an economy box of shower caps, for you know what!

To Mr. Silva, the Seniors leave all the stray sneakers, so that there will be no need for the "line-up" in the office.

We leave a large box of aspirin to Mr. Congdon. Maybe they'll help to deaden the pain that our beloved Senior Class leaves behind.

Last, but by no means least, the Senior Class leaves a deep appreciation of all she has done for us in the past to our wonderful class advisor, Mrs. Brown.

Class Prophecy

Brenda Benham now has her own fashion salon. If any of you ever fly to Paris, you'll find her in "Madame Brenda's of Paree."

David Delamater and Carol Anne Todd have taken over Arthur Murray's place on T. V. Since Murray's recent retirement, the new team can be seen over WXYZ-TV.

Paul Sutton is now instructor of gymnastics at West Point. The girls will remember that he got his training from Mr. Silva.

David Fry is a partner in the well-established "Cronin Beauty Bar." You will find him giving manicures while he analyzes the customers.

Gus Lindgren is now head reporter for the "Lonely Hearts Club."

Alyce Weisenstein and her husband, Bob, are now Baron and Baroness in Germany.

Bud Cantino has now retired as commandant of the Marines and is about to accept a position as doorman at the Ritz.

John Wesley is now singing the lead in "Don Giovanni."

Franny Lovejoy is now doing intricate musical arrangements for Fats Domino.

Dennis Fencer is now playing the lead roll in the T. V. series "Dennis the Menace."

Ruth Read is finding it rather difficult to teach algebra and first grade reading in the little one-room schoolhouse in that small New Hampshire town that can barely be seen on the map.

Carolyn Kimball is having trouble with her studies at teacher's college since it is co-ed.

Chrystal Johnson is now the music teacher at Littleton High School, putting Mr. Lacey on the unemployment list.

Four of our senior boys, Eddie Ducharme, John Kelly, Eddie Recke, and Warren Davis, are still working very hard at Donelan's Red & White, for now they are associates in the business.

Happily married Carter Branigan is now the captain of the USS Matrimony, and is attempting to raise a crew of his own.

Bruce Campbell is now conducting a gigantic sales campaign for Chevrolet in an attempt to destroy Ford sales. He has finally seen the light!

Joanne Wright is editor of ESQUIRE magazine. All that hard practice in Mrs. Robinson's room really paid off.

Walter O'Brien is now the truant officer for the rather large town of Skipsville. I'm sure you remember how he came to school one day for every two he skipped, and he couldn't bear to see the younger generation following in his footsteps.

Dick Erickson and Ronny Pacy are managers of the well-established union, "The United Prune Shovelers of America."

Ruth Ann Dodge is now a busy matron and finds it more fun than work, chasing after those four darling sons.!!

What a coincidence! Bill Hanson, Shirley Holinger, and Sandy Graham are teaching those un-educated Southerners how to speak English. "Save your Dixie cups, the South will rise again! "

Claire Beaulieu now holds the title of "Heavyweight Champion of New England. She deserves it!

Ted Herbert is experimenting for the Russians in their "Mutnik."

Donna Delamater is tax collector in Tightwadville, U. S. A. Most of you will recall how well she managed to extract all the delinquent money for the Senior Class.

Janet St. Denis is currently appearing in the new Broadway hit everyone is talking about, Two On A See-saw. Guess who the other one is!

Anne Conville is now married, and most of you can find her teaching her five children "Shorthand in Ten Easy Lessons."

Elaine Johnson is currently teaching "Problems of Democracy," and, as a sideline, operates a "Ferry boat" across Beaver Brook.

Sheri Harvey, raring to go,
Erickson, Ruth, too new to know.
Very curious, Cheryl Saffell
Early Fred Recke comes in at first bell
Not Jacquie Charter, she's last to sit down.

A Grand slam home-runner, Lois Brown.

Smith, Robert, Red Sox well wisher
Eager in everything, Caroline Fisher
Velvet complexion has Judy Maynard
Eagerly Dale Hardy always plays hard
New boy, James Cande seems to be nice.

Bashful Miss Poulin is always precise.

Susan Spinney dark as can be,
Enthusiastic giggler, Dot McSorley
Vetro Karen is never bored
Eddie Hinckley: future Henry Ford
Nancy Kimball, retiring and quiet

Corrine Sweatt loves a riot.

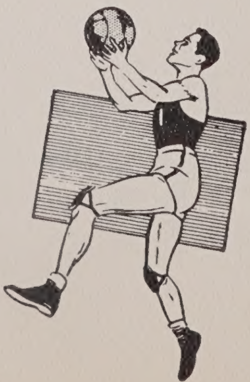
BOYS' VARSITY

The school should be proud of this year's Varsity team. With a record of 9 wins and 4 losses, the boys, who were managed by John Stoddard and coached by Mr. Arthur Silva, showed good sportsmanship and excellent co-operation with each other.

With David Delamater and Fran Lovejoy as co-captains, the following boys comprised the team:

Andy Landini
James Smith
John Lojko
Micheal Chulada
Richard Guerra
David Sullivan
Carter Branigan



BOYS' JUNIOR VARSITY

The Boys' Junior Varsity basketball team, also in the hands of Mr. Arthur Silva, enjoyed an exceptionally good year, finishing the season with only one loss in eight games. This single loss (to Westford), was avenged later in the year by the fast-moving members of the team which included: Jimmy Lucchesi, Thain Allan, Peter Yapp, Harry See, Eddie Wood, Eddie Conrad, Chuck Winn, David Frost, David Morrissette, and David Foster.

Playing mostly junior varsity ball clubs, giving away height in all but two games, the "Tiger Cubs" roared through a very successful season. Using a good man-to-man defense and an alert passing offense they improved tremendously as the season progressed. Capt Bill Bakker and Nat Whitney, a tremendously improved ball player, dominated the boards. Fiorentino and Contini were excellent playmakers and scored frequently. Brown showed much promise for a beginner. Strengthened by the return of Harry See at the end of the season, the Frosh pressed the JV team in a thrilling climax to a successful season.

GIRLS' VARSITY

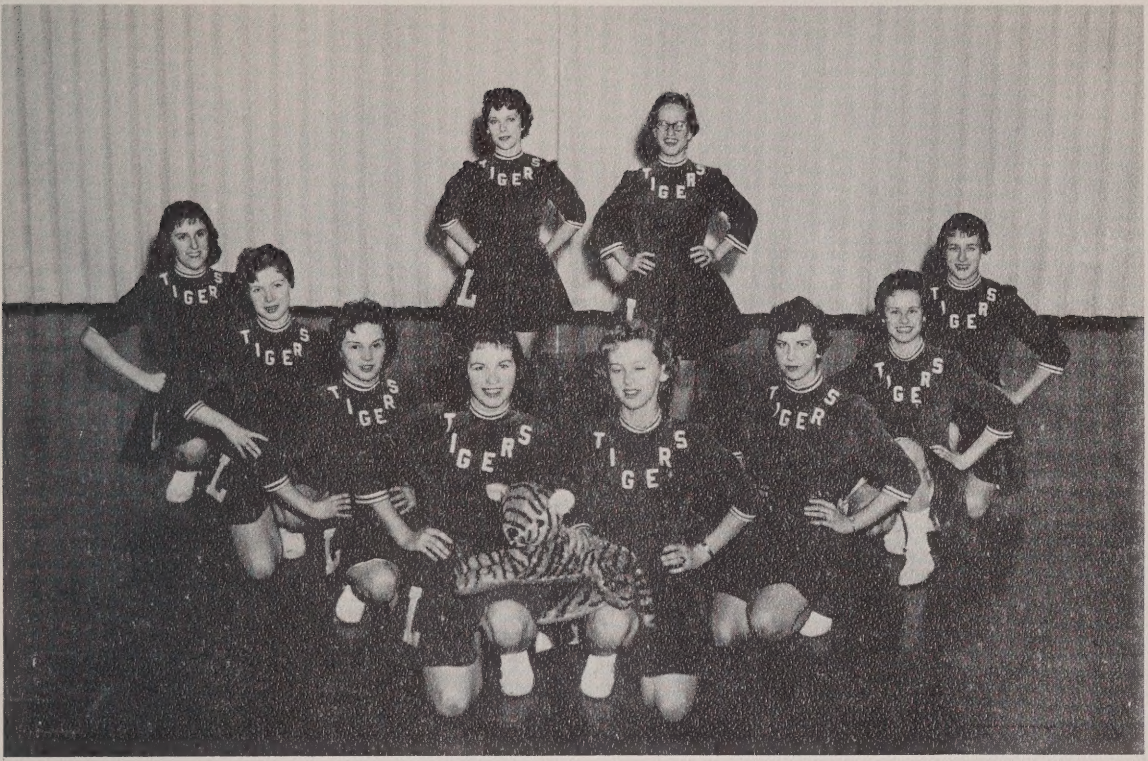
The Girls' Varsity basketball team started out this season with an almost entirely new group of girls. With Miss Martha Leino as coach, and Donna Delamater and Judy Smiley as co-captains, the girls played each game with very good team spirit.

The following girls made up the team: Claire Beaulieu, Sandy Graham, Carol Cunningham, Julie Hosmer, Janet Eliades, Minnie Cantino, Nancy Sammarco, Mary Delamater, and Penny Dalton. Carol Anne Todd and Joanne Wright were the managers.

GIRLS' JUNIOR VARSITY

The Girls' Junior Varsity team played a very successful season, with only a few losses. Miss Martha Leino coached the girls, and Pamela Johnson and Joan Carrow were the co-captains.

Everyone is looking forward to seeing them play again next year; they look very promising. Other members of the team include: Donna Michaels, Phyllis Valentine, Barbara Munro, Shirley Holinger, Jane Campbell, Sandra Alling, and Sarah Kimball.



THE CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders, under the direction of Mrs. Humphrey and Miss Wetmore, added a lot to all the games played this season. The following girls, accompanied by their little mascot, made up this year's squad: Co-captains Judy Champagne and Joyce Whitney, Mary Jane Chidley, Donna Dillon, Norma Erickson, Edna Dow, Beverly Cronin, Margot Smith, Francine Smith, and Linda Graham.

To Carol,
Never forget all the fun we had in the last
3 years of High School. I'm sure that our last year will be just as much fun.
Always,
Bunny '54
